THE BEST

blood ever bestowed upon man is perfect health, and the true way to insure health is to purify the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mrs. Eliza A. Clough, 43 Arlington st., Lowell, Mass., writes: "Every winter and spring my family, including myself, use several bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Experience has convinced me that, as a powerful purifier, it is very much superior to all other preparation of Sarsaparilla. All persons of serofulous or consumptive tendencies, and especially delicate children, are sure to be greatly benefited by its use." J. W. Starr, Leavenworth, Iowa, writes:

"For years I was troubled with serofulous complaints. I tried several different preparations, which did me little, if any, good. Two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla effected a complete cure. It is my opinion that this medicine is the best for the day." C. E. Upton, Nasus, N. H., writes: "For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and unable to obtain relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I have taken several bottles, am greatly benefited, and believe it to be the best of blood purifiers." R. Harris, Creel City, Ramsey Co., Dakota, writes: "I have been an intense sufferer, with Dyspepsia, for the past three years. Six months ago I began to use

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

It has effected an entire cure, and I am now as well as ever."

should be your crowning glory. Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the vitality and color of youth to hair that has become thin and faded; and, when the glands are not decayed or absorbed, will cause a new growth on bald heads.

MAY of the hair to be preserved to old age? Read the following, from Mrs. G. Norton, Somerville, Mass.: "I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past 30 years; and, although I am upwards of 60, my hair is as abundant and glossy today as when I was 20."

BE assured that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor will convince you of its powers. Mrs. E. Goff, Louisville, Ky., writes: "Two years ago, my hair having almost entirely fallen out, I commenced the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. To-day my hair is 29 inches long, fine, strong, and healthy."

RENEWED by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor, the hair regains its youthful color and vitality. Rev. H. P. Foster, Princeton, Col., Mecklenburg Co., N. C., writes: "I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the last ten years. It is an excellent preservative."

BY A. Busham, Waterloo, Mo., his hair restored to its original beauty condition. He was nearly bald, and very gray. He writes: "Only four bottles of the Vigor were required to restore my hair to its youthful color and quantity."

USING cases of the scalp, F. H. Foster, Princeton, Ind., writes: "I had been disabled for years with a disease of the scalp, my head was covered with dandruff, and the hair dry and harsh. Ayer's Hair Vigor gave me immediate relief, cleaned the scalp, and rendered the hair soft and pliable."

"Quit Your Lying!"—A Powerful Sermon on Private and Public Prayer.—"Contentment"—Reviewing to the Line, Letting the Chips Fall Anywhere.

say is true—and you can rely most always on them—on the last day of the old year, one year ago, was passed by one of his children, a boy, who had been given a New Year's gift! And he said, "Daughter, I shall have—. I get my choice of good things—but I am not able to have a new next morning. I didn't have ten dollars in the world, and I had both of them. No one could tell him what he had. What's this? This world you can't buy with money until that's the truth."

That's the man in the south once had a good wife and he got very rich, and wanted to build a hundred thousand dollar mansion to live in. When he got it, he said, "With him as long as he had forty of his kin who were hungry and homeless unless he bought them all a place to live in."

Now, I am sure, you will say, "What's this? Contentment?"

"I heard of a fellow once that always prided himself on his house. At any rate, he was a good man, and he said that much is possible who maintains integrity, and when we learn from a text like this that it is the will of God that we should be content, we are to do so. That's the truth."

"These are three of the most remarkable sermons I have ever heard in the Box. At any rate, I am sure, you will say, "What's this? Contentment?"

The firm of McDaniel & Watkins has been dissolved by mutual consent of the parties. Mr. Watkins retires and Mr. McDaniel will continue the business at the old stand on Market street.

REMEMBER that the ice factory will be sold at 2 p.m., next Wednesday at public auction. The sale will include all the privileges and franchises and parties wishing to make a good investment should be on hand. Sale will take place on the premises.

MAYOR E. E. PEACE, Jr., has received his commission from the Governor and qualified last Saturday. The first case brought before him was that of Cora Craig, colored, charged with perjury. The accused was held to bail in the sum of $50 to answer the charge in the Circuit Court.

Ayer's Hair vigor improves the beauty of the hair and promotes its growth. It imparts an attractive appearance, a delightful and lasting perfume. While it stimulates the roots, cleanses the scalp, and adds elegance to luxuriance, its effects are enduring; and thus it proves itself to be the best and cheapest article for toilet use.

MR. HORACE J. January served faithfully and efficiently as Mayor for five successive terms. Mr. Horace January retired from that office last Saturday. Mayville never had a Mayor who gave better satisfaction to all in the discharge of his duties, and, in retiring from office, Mr. January carries with him the hearty good will of his fellow citizens.

THEIR funeral procession passed through this city yesterday, an event that rarely occurs here. The remains of John S. Dugan that arrived here last Friday from Schnyler, Neb., were taken to Springfield and interred, and the remains of Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Wm. E. Smoot, whose deaths were noticed Saturday, were interred in the cemetery at this place.

REV. RUSSELL CECIL, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, delivered last evening a very impressive and forcible sermon on the serious question, "What is Your Life?" This was the first of a series of sermon to young people and especially young men. Judging from the commencement and the able manner in which this important question was presented it would be well for all, old and young, to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this series of sermons. "Habit," the subject for next Sunday evening. Accept the invitation so freely offered.

THERE was one addition to the M. E. Church, South, at the close of the services last Saturday night. The services yesterday attracted large crowds both morning and night. The crowd at night was the largest yet, notwithstanding there were services at all the other churches. A special meeting for the members of the church was held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, which was also well attended. The audience was strongly impressed by the earnest discourses which were preached by Rev. H. C. Morrison. Preaching again this afternoon at 3 o'clock and to-night at 7:30 o'clock.

NOT IN THE LIST.

A Marriage That Didn't Take Place.

A scene that wasn't on the list" when the Leland Opera Company came here, transpired at Heise's European Hotel last Saturday afternoon between several members of the company. It was nothing more or less than the thwarting (only for the time being, of course) of the marriage of Miss Lillian Lawrence, the pretty little "Yum-Yum" of the party, to Mr. G. A. Wright. The groom that was to be was recently the advance agent of the "Argonauts" who are filling dates at the present time in this State. It was learned from a member of the company that the couple first met each other the week previous while the "Mikado" was at Winchester. It was apparently a case of "love at first sight" with the two. They both look to be very young and it was learned that Miss Lawrence is but eighteen, while Mr. Wright is probably not much beyond that age. This will account, to some extent at least for the ardor of their love. Wright, who no doubt had thought "minutes hours and hours" since he parted with the pretty "Yum-Yum" at Winchester, arrived Saturday morning and at once bided himself to the European. That afternoon he procured a license at the clerk's office and after the matinée the couple sought for Judge Wm. P. Coons to say the words that would make the twain one. That official soon arrived on the scene. The rest of the company, it seems, had been kept completely in the dark by the two. Judge Coons was on the point of beginning the ceremony or had already begun it, when J. F. Kearny "Ko-Ko," "Yum-Yum's" guardian (in the play) came in and interrupted the affair with "I object to this marriage."

"Upon what grounds?" said Judge Coons.

"Because," replied "Ko-Ko," "Miss Lawrence is not yet of age, and more than that her mother placed her in our care when we started out, and we cannot give our consent to these nuptials."

"The young lady is not of age that settles it," answered our worthy County Judge, which he took his departure.

Of course, a scene ensued. "Yum-Yum's" contemplated action was warmly opposed by Mr. Giles Shline, the busness manager, and the rest of the company. Leo Lawrence the "Fish-Push" of the company and brother of Miss Lillian arrived about this time and when he heard what had all but taken place, he became very angry, and a stormy scene ensued between him and his sister. The master had been amicably adjusted and an understanding arrived at, however, before the party left to-day. Miss Lawrence, who is a charming little actress and plays the part of "Yum-Yum" to perfection, will probably return to her parents at Washington D. C., in the course of a few months. She is the daughter of Atkins Lawrence, who has once been with Mary Anderson. When she takes her departure, Nankin-Po will be inconsolable, and will feel more than ever like giving away and hating himself, if another "Yum-Yum" cannot be found to cheer him up in his disappointment.

Cancer Cured.

Mrs. Dolly Hardman, an old resident of Walton county, and a lady of culture and prominence, has this to say of the treatment of cancer with SWIFT'S Specific:

On account of your kind offer made up specimens of my hair, I was treated with plasters, and the cure came out. The place where the tumor was, was perfectly free. However, in a few years it returned again with more virulence, however. It was a sore, and I could do nothing to remove it. I then turned to Dr. Swift, and he immediately seemed to do it. He has become one since to do it, with success, and became suddenly apprehensive of my condition. I almost gave up all hope of ever being cured. The physician advised the use of the knife. I told him that I did not want to be cut, and refused, and turned to Dr. Swift again. He immediately removed the tumor, and I have been perfectly well ever since. The first time I had the tumor removed, I had no hope, and my faith strengthened just in proportion. I used the Specific as a wash in the treatment of the sore, and when it was removed I sponged the sore with the medicine diluted with water, and soothed the sensitive surface around the sore, relieved the sensitiveness and pain.

I then applied the Specific to the sore, and it soon began to decrease, and finally disappeared. I am now in full health. Could it be, I asked myself, that I was about to be relieved of this disease? I am now in full health, and I thank God that the idea of being well again almost entirely dispelled the fear that had possessed me with many hopes. On taking the second dose of the Specific, I was again relieved, and my faith strengthened just in proportion. I used the Specific as a wash in the treatment of the sore, and when it was removed I sponged the sore with the medicine diluted with water, and soothed the sensitive surface around the sore, relieved the sensitiveness and pain.

I then applied the Specific to the sore, and it soon began to decrease, and finally disappeared. I am now in full health. Could it be, I asked myself, that I was about to be relieved of this disease?
